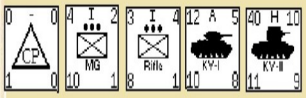
LENINGRAD 1941
SITUATION #1

The Gates of Leningrad: September 13th 1941

Malaya Kabosi crossroads, outskirts of Leningrad
The German 1st Panzer Division has temporarily halted its advance on Leningrad allowing local Soviet forces to regroup and mount a hasty counterattack to seize a vital crossroads

Map Configuration

SOVIET FORCES

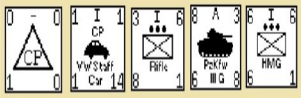


x 3

SET UP AT NORTERN EDGE OF MAP

Special Rules:
1. Due to partial surprise the Germans may not move until the turn after the first Soviet is seen.
2. Panzer Platoon 2 (same as Panzer Platoon 1) enters from the south edge 3 turns after the first Soviet is seen.

GERMAN FORCES



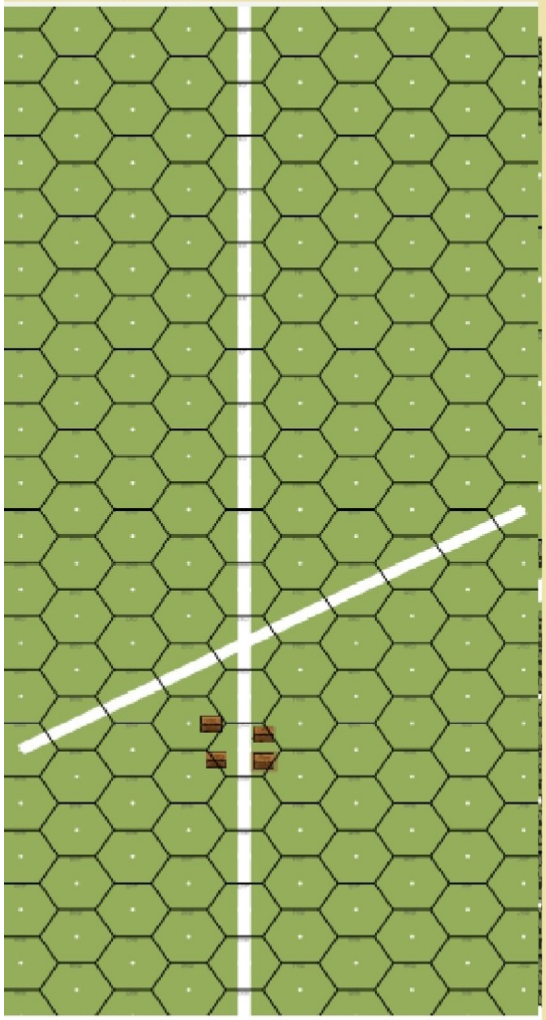
x 3 x 2

SET UP AT THE SOUTHERN EDGE OF THE MAP

Victory Conditions

The Soviets must have undisputed control of the crossroads by the end of the game to win otherwise the Germans win.

TURN 1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	END 15



The German infantry withdrew while the panzers maneuvered to get flanking shots on the Soviet armored beasts. Eventually even they were forced to withdraw. A Soviet victory